GORDON MEM. S.S. HAS CHRISTMAS TREE

Good Program Is Given By Boys and Girls of the Sunday School.

It is a good thing Christmas comes once a year and it's also a good thing that Sunday Schools and other organizations have their Christmas tree entertainment, and the annual visit from Santa Claus. Otherwise parents and other grown up would soon forget what it feels like and looks like to be young, and they would lose much of the joy that accompanies an evening with children whose hearts and minds are full of the Christmas spirit, and all its traditions, and whose eyes sparkle in anticipation of what is coming next.

Those grown up who visited Gordon Memorial church last Thursday evening had all the thrills that go with a real up-to-date Christmas tree entertainment. So much so, that some found it hard to sit still while Santa was handing out the packets and bags to the children.

The program for the evening was given entirely by the children of the Sunday School, many of the tiniest tots taking part.

The choruses by the whole school and by the younger children were exceptionally well rendered and the drill by the older girls was especially put on. Recitations, dialogues, and songs appropriate for the occasion were most amusingly staged by those taking part. The whole program was so good it would be hard to single out any items for special mention. The evening was pronounced a great success by young and old.

Bad Floods Reported In Southern States

Many Lives Are Lost and Considerable Damage to Property

During the past week floods have created great havoc in several of the southern States. A report from Memphis, Tennessee, on Tuesday, says: With the heavy, dews in three southern States at thirteen, and approximately 4,000 homeless as the result of the flooded streams, Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky prepared for more rain. Property damage in the flooded areas have been estimated at more than a million dollars. Five men reported dead in Arkansas, five in Mississippi and two in Tennessee as the direct results of the flood. Three thousand were driven from their homes in the city of Nashville, when the Cumberland river overflooded its banks and the great levee had been reached early today.

The prodigious thousands of acres of rice, were being trampled under the hooves of Kentucky and Indiana, as the result of the flood stage being reached in the Ohio river. It is expected further rise of five feet before the crest. Much ungrainable corn has been ruined by the flood waters in these two states.

Farmers Advised Not To Burn Straw

New Straw Paper Co. Almost Ready to Begin Operations

With the newly-formed Straw Paper Company nearly ready to begin operations, farmers in this province are advised not to burn straw during the winter months. In the opinion of those interested, the company will require straw in the early summer of 1927, and straw is being taken, therefore, to advise farmers a little later in the present season so that they may be able to deliver their material to selected points in the course of the winter. The immediate minimum requirements will be 12,500 tons.

LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN CALGARY

After ten years of almost continuous effort, stockmen of Western Canada have succeeded in securing the annual convention of the Canadian Livestock Association for Calgary. The convention, which will be attended by delegates and officers from practically all the livestock associations of Canada, will be one of the most important gatherings ever held as far as the livestock industry in the west is concerned and will be held in Calgary from March 28 until 30.

Drilling Again At Roth Well

Drilling operations are now in full swing again at the oil well here. A full staff has been secured to keep the outfit going night and day, and satisfactory progress is being made. The hole is now down about 1500 feet.

All Ready For The Glassblowers' Dance

In Cameo Theatre on Friday—Committee Has Overlooked Nothing

The committee in charge assures us that everything is in line in readiness for the big Glassblowers' ball, which takes place in the Cameo theatre tomorrow evening. The floor is in excellent condition, the orchestra will be there in full force and the dancing for the ladies are already mixed and ready to go. Nothing has been overlooked to make this dance the event of the season. Don't miss it if you do you'll be losers.

U. F. A. CONVENTION JANUARY 18th to 21st

Will Be Held in Edmonton—Good Program Assured

The U.F.A. convention will be held in Edmonton this year and will open at 9:30 on the morning of January 18th. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions will be held from then till the close on Friday evening of the 21st.

The convention promises to be of more interest than usual this year as the list of resolutions is considerably reduced and more time will be allowed for the discussion of social and political questions, much time will also be devoted to the discussion of co-operative marketing.

From the tentative program which appears in this week's U.F.A., an interesting convention is assured.

The Review Wishes You All

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

This Occasion reminds us of the pleasant relationship which has existed between us and our readers in the past. May it continue throughout the year 1927.

THE NEW YEAR

She walks within the friendly door This fair New Year that is to be, All silent yet, with folded wings, And veiled in mystery.

Her arms are filled with precious gifts Her feet are strongly, fully shod, Her eyes are lifted heavenward, Calm with her trust in God.

Her smile is as a gracious queen Who would with gifts her Realm endow.

Her hands are shapely, capable, Ambition's on her brow.

As she opens wide the door We hear a trumpet call afar, And haste through trailing draperies To where her secrets are.

On, on, we go, but as for me, No ghosts of the dead Yesterday Will stare from unfamiliar rooms, Or down these hallways stray.

Forget, the failures of the Past, The imperfections and the strife, And a New Year's song is on my lips And I am one with Life.

GORDON MEMORIAL CHURCH NOTES

Christmas is over for another year, may its spirit linger and be the outstanding feature in all our work as we have faced into the duties and responsibilities of the New Year. There are many faith and many creeds and many paths that wind and wind; But just the act of being kind, is what the old world needs.

Morning and evening services in Gordon Memorial were well attended. The sermons were helpful and inspiring and the contributions made by the choir both junior and senior, were much appreciated. We were glad to have a number of former workers here for the holiday with us once more.

After the morning services the Session and Board of Stewards, together with representatives of the other organizations, met and unanimously to send a message of sympathy in the name of the congregation to Mrs. Dunnet and family at Ladner, B.C. The passing of Mr. George Dunnet was noted with deep sorrow by every person associated with Gordon Memorial. During all the years of his residence in Redcliff he was, in the opinion of those who knew him, a pillar upon whom the congregation leaned heavily. His life's interest centered in the church where he was a member of the Building Committee, the Board of Managers, and as a member of Session. He has gone to his reward, his memory abiding, a precious heritage. If the mantle of his spirit falls upon those of us who are here, the coming year will see the church which he put so much of his heart, move another stage nearer completion.

The passing of Mr. George Dunnet was noted with deep sorrow by every person associated with Gordon Memorial. During all the years of his residence in Redcliff he was, in the opinion of those who knew him, a pillar upon whom the congregation leaned heavily. His life's interest centered in the church where he was a member of the Building Committee, the Board of Managers, and as a member of Session. He has gone to his reward, his memory abiding, a precious heritage. If the mantle of his spirit falls upon those of us who are here, the coming year will see the church which he put so much of his heart, move another stage nearer completion.

After the morning services the Session and Board of Stewards, together with representatives of the other organizations, met and unanimously to send a message of sympathy in the name of the congregation to Mrs. Dunnet and family at Ladner, B.C. ## COMMUNICATION

To the Editor:

The editorial in the Review under the heading, "Imperial Conference" consisting of a quotation from the Royal Bank's monthly letter regarding the Conference is not very convincing. To claim that "the report of the Imperial Conference gives a concrete expression of the relationship between the members of the Empire" is far-fetched. Neither is it true when viewed from the Empire standpoint that "the great wealth of the Empire may be used in an intelligent and patriotic manner." It is not effective and varied resources of the whole Empire. If I remember right, the slogan of General Herford was "Africa for the Africans." In order to make this possible as Premier of Africa, he demanded "in principle, unrestricted freedom of action to each individual member of the commonwealth, in practice, consultation with a view to co-operative action wherever possible." The great concentration that Herford's demands created, and the laudatory presence on the part of the communities in charge, led by Lord Birenhead clearly prove everything is not as well as they, through the press, are trying to make the public believe.

Such state of affairs are due to ever changing economic conditions. Economic interests are stronger than political feelings. Therefore, owing to the rapid industrial development and demands for markets, producers and demands for markets, producers antagonistic feelings and interests, such as a rule promote desires of independence and self-determination, in a word, nationalism. It is such feeling and forces that the British Empire is confronted by at the present time. The fact is that such nationalist forces in India, Egypt and other places are already challenging Great Britain's right of rule and control.

Even in the Dominions this tendency is noticeable. Besides, the League is not only the intervention of the League is causing a great deal of apprehension. Although the Dominions are in the main self-governing bodies, yet there is a great deal of misunderstanding regarding what this fact implies and to what extent, the Dominions are in involved and responsible. However, Lord Parmoor in a speech before the House of Lords clarified the situation considerably when he said "that the Dominions could not escape the fact that so far as Canada is a part of the Empire when Great Britain is at war, Canada is at war." And recently that London Morning Post had the following opinion on the subject: "The situation of Locarno, for good or for evil, embrace the British Empire, whatever our opinions may say about it." And when Col. L. C. Emery was answering questions in the house of commons, regarding the Locarno treaty, he said that "the resolution of the Imperial Conference expressing satisfaction with the foreign policy of His Majesty's government was a solid contribution." In the face of all this Premier King's assurance of Canada's rights to pursue her own policies of peace and war, away into the thicket of the forest.

The object of the Locarno Treaty, or security pact as it is commonly called, we have been told was to promote peace in Europe. But according to a statement made in an editorial in the Calgary Daily about a year ago, it would more correct to say that it is a declaration of war. Says the Herald: "the death-blow of communism, as engineered from Russia, is dealt in the signing of the Locarno treaty by Germany." That is the end of all Soviet hopes so far as Europe is concerned. The reason for this attitude towards Russia the Herald states is "that communism is anti-social." However, people in general, and Imperialists in particular, seem to fail to understand, and if they do, ignore it, that communistic concepts and ideas are the direct results of present conditions of economic inequality and political injustice.

Therefore as I see it, the indica-time are not as the Royal Bank and other boosters of the Empire like would like to have us believe. That the result of the decisions of the late Imperial Conference "indicate an improved feeling as to the practicability of co-operative economic efforts on the part of the various members of the Empire," but fostered a gradually developing state disintegration. Furthermore, the forces that the statesmen are relying on to prevent this state of affairs is not co-operation, but increased military coercion. However, this fact is kept secret. Of the speech on Empire defense by Austin Chamberlain, no publicity has been given. But it is common knowledge that India and Egypt and other places are kept in control by military power. And it is a truism that those who live by the sword will also perish by it.

Furthermore, it may be true as the Calgary Herald claims, that the Locarno Pact is meant to "the death-blow to communism." To be sure, indications point that way. Every state in Europe bordering the Soviet Union is drawn in. The Soviet Union government was not invited or consulted. And concerning the late Imperial Conference, I feel certain that if the facts were known that it concerned itself to very great extent in developing ways and means to crush and if possible, to crush the influence and power of the Communists.

But as a student of economics and history, I feel confident that just as sure as that devil slither away, the world will be changed by capitalism so in natural sequence must capitalism be displaced by communism. This change in the mode of production and distribution of wealth must be effected in certain. This change no Imperialistic power can prevent.

A total of 500,000 trout fry from the Bluff hatchery have been placed in Reivan Lake and 500,000 in Bluff Lake during the past week. A further consignment is to be placed in the tributary waters of the Red River.

Export of pilchard oil to Europe will commence in bulk in September. Producers have contracted to ship 20 tons on each ship of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Co. for several months. The market is in Rotterdam. The company will have about two ships per month. Pilchard oil is used in preparing foods and medicines.

Another step forward in the effort to restore to Montreal its leading position in the live stock industry was taken recently when members of the Eastern Cattle Market Exchange met to reorganize their operations in the face of the changes made calculated to improve Montreal's standing in the industry.

Duke Dmitri, of Leuchtenberg, Count de Beauchamp, lineal descendant of Charles, Duke of Beauchamp, who governed Canada in the name of the French King Louis XV, between 1758 and 1767, is visiting for the first time the country in which his ancestor made history. He is taking part in the Grand Prix-Pur of the Canadian Trail Riders which is being held in Piarmann Valley, near Lake Louis, in the Canadian Rockies.

The English football team have finished their seven week tour of the Dominion and they were greatly impressed with the generous hospitality tendered to them by the people in the cities they visited. Joe Smith, captain of the team, said: "Canadian football will, in a few years, in all probability be on a par with the brand of soccer played by the major leagues in Great Britain." According to him the object of the tour has been fully accomplished.

Coming from all parts of Great Britain and Ireland twenty-five thoroughbreds were unloaded from the Canadian Pacific "liner" Matagana when it arrived in Montreal lately. They are for Mula's breeding and training ranch near Winnipeg, and comprises one stallion, 12 mares and eight geldings. Nellie's Feb. Byarwood, by Ogness (five of winner of Scottish Derby last year) out of La Lue; and Denton, two-year-old, who comes of the same breeding as Gorseach, winner of this year's English Derby, were among the horses arriving.

Captain Kilroy Harris, lecturer and radio talker in the United States on Australia and New Zealand, recently passed through Montreal on his way to the west where he will take part in the Trail Ride in the Canadian Rockies. He is already possessor of a silver medal for having completed 100 miles of trail rides and hopes this year to earn the gold medal that testifies to the completion of 500 miles riding trails in that district. Capt. Harris is gathering material from Canadian sources for his lectures and radio talks.

Here and There

The financial statement of the Canadian Pacific Railway issued at Montreal for the seventh month of last ending July 31st, shows the large increase in the net profits of $6,091,201.52 over the net profits for the first seven months 1925. The gross earnings were $101,825,207.11, as compared with $99,543,857.75 for the first seven months of 1925.

Unofficial estimates prepared by the authorities of the Department of Commerce, Washington, estimated that Americans visiting Canada this year would spend approximately $100,000,000. This estimate is so limited to be very conservative and that it was more than likely that the amount would exceed the $200,000,000 mark.

Announcement was made recently over the signature of E. K. Reid, freight traffic manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, of the appointment of D. A. Wanklyn as general manager of the Railway, with offices in Montreal. Mr. Wanklyn replaces Graham W. Curtis, who has resigned, to fill the position of general manager for Montreal and Water Terminals, Limited.

Otto H. Kahn, chairman of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Opera Company, accompanied by a party of internationally known financiers of New York, visited the National Exhibition at Toronto recently.

Mr. Kuhn, who is perhaps the leading art and music patron of the United States, addressed a luncheon of the directors of the Exhibition on September 2nd, the day of the Exhibition, which was set aside as "Music Day."

It is understood that purchases, in Canada of $500 railway cars may result from the visit of the engineering expert, Mr. Vandergrift, and the Transport Commissioner's representative, Mr. Baronsky, who have been delegated by the Soviet Republic to investigate the possibilities of securing this number in Canada. They have also been instructed to make a study of the organization of the Canadian railway above and the repair methods in general.

Three wolf cubs were caught recently near Lake Douville in Northern Ontario by Arthur Beauvais, well-known driver of the Chateau Frontenac dog-team at Quebec, and will be trained by Beauvais for the harness. He is confident that by mingling the wolves with husky puppies for several months they will lose some of their wildness and make an attractive addition to the Chateau team. Beauvais states that wild wolves have endurance, but have not the "heart" of a husky dog.

BIRTHS

HARDIN - In Redcliff on Friday, Dec. 24th, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hardie, a son.

A flock of 45 sheep, comprising 35 ewes and 11 rams, has been purchased by an official of the Dominion Government under instructions from the Soviet Government for dispatch to Vladivostok, as soon as arrangements can be made for their shipment. Last year quite a number of prize-winning cattle were shipped from British Columbia to Russia and this new order indicates that previous shipments have been satisfactory.

Many valuable shipments of furs from the great trapping areas of the Hudson Bay Company are arriving through the Dominion Express at Montreal. These unimposing bags, piled high on the trucks often represent a total value of $200,000. After being collected at the various Hudson Bay posts along the coast, the furs are brought down by canoe in summer and dog team in winter to the northern terminus of the T. and O. Railway.

Remarkable expansion of passenger traffic in and out of Montreal has been reported during July and August by the passenger department of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The "D.J. Wing" and the "Alouette" on the Boston run and the "Rideau" and "York" to Toronto, four new trains deluxe placed on these routes early in the year have been running with capacity loads. Eastward to Quebec there is heavy traffic for the Ancient Capital, while trains running north into the Laurentians, it is stated, have never been so filled as in the case of the summer.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS

A Happy New Year

I RESOLVE

That, though I am not bound to win, I am bound to be true to our customers, I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to what I think is doing the right thing by those who entrust their purchasing of food to our care. I will not join with the retail merchants associating the wholesale grocers of Alberta and the manufacturers of Ontario in any kind of price agreement which will unnecessarily extort extra dollars from our customers. I most stand with this principle, because it is right, as long as it remains right, and part with it when someone proves it to be wrong. Though, like Daniel, I must "dare to stand alone," my resolution for the coming year is, that without fear or favor we shall supply our customers with the world's best, at even a closer margin of profit than in the past, that we shall render better service if possible, and that our customers shall be our only consideration, first, last and all the time.

Monsters of a Million Years Ago

View of "Bad Lands" of Alberta. (Inset) Drawing of short dinosaurs of vast ages existing even at that time. In highest these dinosaurs have never been exceeded. The herbivorous group were the largest; they browsed on the scrubby vegetation and among the ferns and bushes, or stood up and gnawed trees with their fore-limbs while they devoured the foliage. Many of these were giraffe-like monsters whose long fore-limbs and unusually longer necks enabled them to take refuge in deeper waters, more out of reach of the fierce carnivores of the land. The Diploboscus, a herbivorous dinosaur whose skeleton is in the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, measures slightly less than four feet in length, and a still more colossal one found later and known as Gigantosauros measures well over one hundred feet. The carnivorous or flesh-eating groups were not so large; they were the Tyrannosaurus, and ranged up to the herbivores. Though equipped with frightful weapons they were comparatively feeble in intelligence to the modern crocodile or lizard and far below the bird or mammal. Of these Tyrannosaurus seems the length of forty-seven feet, and in a standing position the animal was eighteen to twenty feet high as against twelve feet for the largest African elephant. The long deep powerful jaws were set with teeth from three to six inches long and as thick wide. To protect them from flesh-eating dinosaurs, many of the herbivorous ones were completely encased in armor, such as Ankylosaurus. Plates covered the skull, neck, back and hips, and even the body was covered by a pliable mosaic of small close-set plates. It was further protected by a movable plate that could be dropped like a shutter over each eye. The Colossal Tyrannosaurus now has a 1000 lb. remarkably fine collection of dinosaurian remains mounted and on exhibit in the Victoria Museum, Ottawa, and are also to be seen at the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto. The first hint by the means bones are undoubtedly filled with similar fossils; creation is rapid, and the stone contains to what it banks away few fossils are exposed. For all time to come the Red River will be a classic locality for collecting prehistoric treasures.
